MONEY CAN'T BUY EXPERIENCES

Splendours of Egypt & the Nile with Jordan

AMMAN TO AMMAN - 17 DAYS

For the ultimate long-haul adventure, combine our splendours of the Nile itinerary into an 17 day experience from Amman to Cairo (or reverse). Thousands of years of history are yours to uncover as you wind your way through destinations brimming with archaeological wonders, mountainous landscapes and ancient ruins. This insightful discovery will open your eyes to the magnificence of this not-to-miss country.

Explore the "Rose-Red City" of Petra

DAY 1 (or 12): Amman

Depending on when you opt to explore Jordan, you will either fly into Cairo and then onto Amman or disembark the ship and transfer to the airport to begin the next steps of your adventure. Upon arrival to Amman, you'll be greeted by a Uniworld representative and transferred to the The St. Regis Amman

DAY 2 (or 13): Amman, Jerash

After breakfast, you'll embark on a panoramic tour of dynamic and multifaceted Amman that will bring you to the Citadel, Archaeological Museum, Folklore Museum and Roman Amphitheater. Marvel at the 6,000-seat, 2nd-century landmark that today is home to the majority of the city's cultural activities. Journey through the residential suburbs flanked by tree-lined avenues and white houses, then head into downtown for a look at traditional life.

Head off to the ancient city of Jerash, which has been inhabited since the Bronze Age.

As one of the original 10 great Roman cities, Jerash is now the site of one of the best-preserved Roman provincial towns in the world. After being hidden for centuries in the sand and only uncovered in recent decades, Jerash features some of the finest examples of ancient Rome's colonnaded streets, hilltop temples, theaters, spacious public squares and city walls.

Next, we'll head to the Dead Sea, the lowest place on earth. Jordan's coastline along the Dead Sea is one of the most miraculous natural and spiritual landscapes in the world and has enticed travelers for centuries.

Featured Excursion: Amman Panoramic City Tour, Jerash and Dead Sea Visit.

DAY 3 (or 14): Petra, Wadi Rum

Today, you'll explore the "Rose-Red City" of Petra, with its massive red mountains and vast mausoleums. Although much has been written about Petra, nothing truly prepares you for this astonishing city. You'll enter the city through the Siq, a narrow walkway that's flanked by colorful, towering cliffs on both sides. As you reach the end, you'll witness the stunning Al-Khazneh, one of the most intricate and iconic temples in the city. You'll then enter the indescribable Petra Valley, with its overwhelming natural beauty and outstanding architectural achievements—there are hundreds of elaborate rock-cut tombs with intricate carvings. Here also sits a vast Nabatean-built, Roman-style theater and high above rests the impressive Ad-Deir Monastery, accessible by a flight of 800 rock-cut steps. Later, you will travel to the Wadi Rum desert, where you will check-in, have dinner and spend a night glamping under the stars at Mazayen Camp Wadi Rum. Featured Excursion: "Rose-Red City" of Petra.

Roman ruins, Amman

Tour the Wadi Rum desert

DAY 4 (or 15): Wadi Rum, Aqaba

Climb aboard a Bedouin jeep for a tour of the Wadi Rum desert, a place seemingly untouched by the outside world. As you drive through a maze of canyons and rock-scrapes, you'll uncover natural wonder after natural wonder among this sprawling wilderness. After lunch, you'll venture to the coastal city of Aqaba, where you can spend your time exploring ancient sites, trying traditional food or shopping at local vendors. Later, check-in to your hotel for the night, the Al Manara-a Luxury Collection Hotel.

Featured Excursion: Bedouin Jeep Tour of Wadi Rum Desert.

DAY 5 (or 16): Madaba, Amman

Venture to one of the holiest sites of Jordan—Mount Nebo, where Moses was buried. Next up is a visit to Saint George Church, the home of the Madaba Mosaic Map. The map is the oldest surviving cartographic depiction of the Holy Land and Jerusalem. Only a quarter of the original map, which dates from the sixth century AD, still remains.

After lunch, you'll pay a visit to the Iraq al-Amir Women's Cooperative. This TreadRight Foundation-supported endeavor is where local women come together and share special skills with visitors, such as traditional weaving, paper making, ceramics and cooking. Your day then ends in Amman, where you will return to The St. Regis Amman for the night.

Featured Excursions: Madaba Visit with Saint George Church and Mount Nebo or MAKE TRAVEL MATTER® Experiences: Iraq al-Amir Women's Cooperative Visit.

DAY 6 (or 17): Amman

Today, you'll check out of your hotel and transfer to the Queen Alia International Airport for your flight to Cairo, where you'll either begin your Splendours of Egypt & the Nile itinerary or begin your journey home.

Cairo, Sharm El Sheikh to Cairo - 16 Days

The Red Sea area is one of the best places in the world for diving, snorkeling and sea sports. Discover why on this post-cruise/tour extension to our Egyptian river cruises, during which you'll stay at a remarkably elegant resort in Sharm El Sheikh.

Ras Mohammed National Park

DAY 1 (or 12): Cairo, Sharm El Sheikh

Depending on when you opt to explore Egypt, you will either fly into Cairo and then transfer to the ship or disembark the ship and transfer to the airport to begin the next steps of your adventure.

DAY 2 (or 13): Sharm El Sheikh

In a corner of the world suffused with sites of great historical and spiritual note, the Red Sea is certainly amongst the most significant. The Red Sea is best known for its place in the biblical story of Exodus, in which the prophet Moses is said to have parted the sea to aid the Jewish people's escape from Egypt.

This area is also the site of the oldest working Christian monastery in the world, St. Catherine's Monastery, which follows the Greek Orthodox tradition and is a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

One of the oldest tourist sites in South Sinai, St. Catherine's was built around 550 AD in the same place as the famous burning bush of Moses's story.

After visiting the monastery, we'll drive to Dahab, where you'll have some free time to explore the city, shop and have lunch on your own at a local restaurant.

Featured Excursion: A Visit to St. Catherine's Monastery.

Visit to St. Catherine's Monastery

DAY 3 (or 14): Sharm El Sheikh

Today is your opportunity to take full advantage of the luxurious amenities and experiences your hotel offers. The Sharm El Sheikh Four Seasons is an Arabic-style oasis, perched on private beaches by the sea. Treat yourself to a spa service, dine at some of the many restaurants and bars available on the property or partake in a few of the exciting activities curated by the hotel-some of which take you into the water or off to the surrounding desert.

Alternatively, you can join us on an optional Masterpiece Collection experience to Ras Muhammed National Park, bookable with your local host for an additional cost. Ras Muhammed is the southeast point in Sinai Peninsula and is Egypt's first national park. The vast majority of the park protects marine land, including the Red Sea Reef-our destination for today. We'll set off for a relaxing day of sailing and snorkeling. Crystal clear waters will give us the perfect viewing conditions for observing

INDIA'S GOLDEN TRIANGLE & THE SACRED GANGES WITH VARANASI

VARANASI TO NEW DELHI - 15 DAYS

The sacred city of Varanasi is known as the city of temples and a beacon of culture, a 3 day pre or post cruise extension is the perfect way to start or end to your luxury journey through India. Come for the beautiful temples and explore the stunning silk weaved locally.

Varanasi

DAY 1 (or 13): Varanasi

Depending on when you opt to explore Varanasi, you will either fly into Kolkata and then onto Varanasi or disembark the ship and transfer to the airport to begin the next steps of your adventure. The faithful believe that dying in Varanasi breaks the cycle of rebirth and frees the soul, and every good deed done here confers special blessings on the doer. It draws an unending stream of Hindu pilgrims, who lend the city a special flavor. A panoramic tour shows you some of the highlights of the city. As befits a city legendary for its place in Hinduism, temples abound. Vishwanath Temple, dedicated to Shiva and built in 1776, has pinnacles sheathed in gold. White Marble Tulsi Manas, erected in the 1960s, stands amid lovely gardens; ocher-stained Durga Temple, sacred to the goddess Durga, is sometimes called the monkey temple because of the many monkeys frolicking on the premises.

But perhaps the most famous sights of all are the ghats, the broad steps that offer access to the sacred Ganges. Here the faithful come to wash away their sins in the river and to cremate their dead.

Featured Excursion: Varanasi panoramic city tour with private boat viewing of an Aarti ceremony at sunset.

Vishwanath Temple

DAY 2 (or 14): Varanasi, New Delhi

Experience a magical moment on Mother Ganga at morning's first light. Step aboard a rowboat and drift quietly along the serene water as the sun rises, listening to the call of birds and the soft splash of the paddle as it dips into the river. All along the ghats, the faithful bathe in the river, murmur prayers and perform private Aartis. As daylight brightens, more people gather on the ghats, washing clothes, practicing yoga, eating breakfast-gradually the pace of daily life picks up, and the sacred merges into the mundane, showing you how closely the two are linked by the holy river.

Next, see how one of the world's great silk-weaving traditions has flourished in Varanasi for more than 500 years, ever since Mughal rulers first encountered the development of the craft in the 15th century. Varanasi artisans still use traditional Mughal motifs as they weave featherlight silk scarves and lustrous brocades. It can take as long as six months for an artisan to weave the six meters of fabric required for the finest sari, which is often embroidered with gold or silver threads and embellished with beading; brides in particular seek out these gorgeous and unique-and costly-sari fabrics. Discover a range of lush and colorful silks as you visit a silk workshop, where the clack of the Jacquard loom keeps alive a craft handed down from generation to generation, and learn a little about the traditional processes used to create these work of art. You'll return to the hotel and have time to explore a little on your own, before transferring to the airport for your flight to New Delhi, where you will check into your luxury hotel for your last night in India.

Ganges river ghat

Varanasi is known for its beautiful silk weaving

Featured Excursions: Private boat viewing of life and rituals on the Ganges at sunrise and silk factory visit.
