A message from the FOUNDER

Dear Brilliant Customer,

I've worked in the cruise industry for 25 years (half my life!)—when it comes to ships, it takes quite a lot to blow me away and leave me speechless. However I'll never forget my reaction when I saw plans for Explora Journeys's fleet back in 2022. Wow, surely it wasn't possible!

What I saw were contemporary yacht-style ships featuring all the amenities you could need on board. A real cosmopolitan sailing experience, so far away from the wood panelling and cheesy entertainment image that cruise ships have traditionally had. We were finally taking steps into the future of cruising. I was so ready for it.

When I finally got on board, my jaw dropped even further. This wasn't a cruise ship, this was a beautiful floating hotel. The suites, the onboard lounging and dining areas, the experiences—everything is done to the highest standards and that's something we aim for every single day at Panache Cruises.

We've had dozens of our staff on board to get a taste for real ultra-luxury cruising—each was as blown away as I was.

As a result, we've become one of Explora Journeys' top agent partners in the UK. I'm proud that we can maintain a fantastic relationship with their excellent team. It means my colleagues can get the very best deals and inclusions to you, our brilliant customers!

We need to show you this amazing cruise product. Our team has put together this brochure, and I think it really reflects the elegance of this cruise line. Open up to look at Explora Journeys' fleet and their stunning itineraries (including a hosted-group cruise!), with top-notch deals and more. I loved reading it, I hope you do too.

Please don't hesitate to contact me on my personal email address
james.cole@panachecruises.com

You can also give the team a ring 0161 516 7304 and they'll be happy to talk you through everything Explora Journeys related.

Happy reading

Nicola Tempest-Mitchell

Panache come up trumps again

We are currently on Explora II which was our second Explora Journey booked by Panache Cruises and our first booked by Nicola Tempest/Mitchell. We were so impressed with Panache and Nicola that we booked another future cruise through them. Nicola's swift communications are evidence of the great customer service she offers. We planned a third Explora cruise whilst onboard but despite numerous emails and payment links we couldn't make the deposit. I contacted Nicola who quickly arranged to take our deposit and also gave us yet another great cruise price. I think we can safely say Panache cruises are excellent and we highly recommend the company and Nicola.

Scott Perry

This is the first time we have booked...

This is the first time we have booked with Panache, we dealt with Scott who was very helpful. We have been cruising for over 25 years and been to most areas of the world which has mainly been on mid-size ships the likes of Princess, HAL, Celebrity and Cunard. What we were finding was that it was getting more difficult to go places that we had not been before. So we had decided to move to smaller ships that get into ports that bigger ships can't. We have booked with Explora Journeys. Scott was very helpful as he had already been on the ship and as a consequence had first hand experience. We particularly like the idea of the brand-new ships.

Journeys for All The Family

Explora Journeys is perfect for multi-generational cruising, offering enriching experiences for all ages. Grandparents can create lasting memories with their family while enjoying world-class facilities. The Nautilus kids' club keeps younger guests entertained with games, sports, and creative activities, while adults relax in luxury. With something for everyone, from outdoor fun to indulgent amenities, Explora Journeys provides the ideal setting for families to connect and explore the world together.

Charlie Clarkson is 12 years old

He recently embarked on a voyage with his parents aboard the ultra-luxury Explora Journeys ship, EXPLORA I. We asked him to review Nautilus Club, the onboard kids' club where children and teenagers can chill out while their parents are... chilling out!

Here's what he had to say....

My time in the Nautilus Club really was excellent. As soon as I walked in, I was met with a comforting welcome by the lovely hosts who really settled me in for the week to come. Board games, video games, pool, table football—what do I play first?

Everything from the furniture, lighting and just simply how everything looked really made me feel as if I was at home. After the hard decision of what to play first, I finally settled with the video games. As I logged on to the PS5 I couldn't believe how many games the club had, every game I could think of was there. Now this is the hard part, what game do I play?

Well, I couldn't decide so I thought I would go to one of the hosts to ask for any suggestions. That's when I met Mo, soon to become my best friend of the whole trip.

Mo was an excellent host, as was his colleague, Fatima. Both hosts really looked after me well and ensured that they gave all of the children their full attention and entertained us with lots of different games and activities. It really was so much fun!

Now you may be thinking, well this is all well and good, but what if the children want to get some fresh air? Well, this was my favourite part.

There was an option to have dinner with the hosts in the evening, so on a couple of occasions I did just that and dined with the Nautilus Club. After we had been taken to dinner by our hosts, they would take us up to the sports court. Football, Basketball, pickleball you name it. Every night we played different games, but my personal favourite was when we played a pickleball tournament!

Another favourite evening was when I got to watch the movie, Gran Turismo on the pool deck at night under the stars!... I really did make some amazing memories.

Thank you Mo, Fatima and EXPLORA I Nautilus Club, I had the best week sailing around the Greek Islands with you and hope to be back again soon.
