Summer party

James, Heather and staff at Panache Cruises' summer party

WE'RE THE BEST SMALL BUSINESS, TWICE OVER

We're immensely proud to have been recognised with an award in our industry. Founder and Managing Director, James Cole, and Head of Supplier Relations, Anna Perrott, enjoyed a fantastic day in sunny London at the Best Workplaces in Travel Awards - even before we were awarded as the Best Small Business! A few weeks later we were awarded Best Agency To Work For Small at the Travel Weekly Agent Achievement Awards! Our plan to create a comfortable place to work, prioritising independence, strong relationships, and personal growth is working.

GRANT THROWS SOME SERIOUS SHAPES

We had a lot of fun at our summer party. Dressing to impress, we were dolled up to the nines for a marvellous three course meal at Luciano's in our spiritual home, Chorley. We even invited representatives from our cruise line partners and loved getting to know them better on an individual level. Highlights included a speech straight from James Cole's heart, a show-stopping burrata for starter, and a party-starting dance performance from cruise connoisseur Grant Orgill.

WE'RE GONNA NEED A BIGGER BOAT

Since launching in July 2020, we can confidently say we're growing. In fact we're making so many waves in our industry, we're gonna need a bigger boat. On top of a recruitment drive to increase the size of our workforce by 30%, we're quadrupling the size of the office space in our Chorley HQ. Our new office features all mod-cons such as soundproof pods for independent working, stand-up desks for better productivity, and at last a decent coffee machine!

OUR CONNOISSEURS ARE AT SEA

Besides providing world-class service, finding the perfect cruise and tailoring it to meet your wants and requirements, picking up awards, and summer partying, we also like to get out on a luxury cruise every once in a while ourselves. We've been everywhere recently with our luxury cruise line partners. From our glorious British Isles on an expedition cruise and a snowy trip to Svalbard, to the tropical islands of Thailand and the French and Spanish Riviervas, we've truly been travelling the globe. We're the luxury cruise experts, and we've got more trips on the horizon so we can experience the product for ourselves.

OCEAN CRUISES

Luxury cruises are pure indulgence from start to finish. At Panache Cruises, we aim to start your enjoyment from the moment you contact us until well after your return, taking care of every step along the way.

We only work with the best of the best; our impressive roster of luxury ocean cruise lines include Regent Seven Seas Cruises, Silversea, Seabourn, Oceania Cruises, Azamara, Explora Journeys, and Windstar Cruises.

The inherent all-inclusive concept of a luxury cruise offers value beyond compare. Not only will your ship be magnificent and the service world-class, but you will also be able to experience some of the most immersive and interesting itineraries which explore the most incredible destinations around the world.

From a sumptuous sojourn around the Mediterranean or a classic island-hopping cruise in the Caribbean, to a wildlife-spotting voyage in South Africa or a tropical getaway in Southeast Asia, there truly is something for every traveller when it comes to ocean cruising.

RIVER CRUISES

Ocean cruises take you to countries, but river cruises take you through them; land is always in sight and scenery is at eye level. Days are filled with specially created land tours led by expert guides to cultural masterpieces, plus there's a variety of biking excursions taking a path less travelled for glimpses of local life.

Whether you're into historic buildings and colourful architecture in Europe's oldest cities or you like to keep active on walking tours and bicycle excursions, there is always an exciting list of excursions to get involved with.

After a day filled with show-stopping scenery, there's the chance to meet new friends in the comfy lounge before retiring for a blissful night's sleep, caressed by the gentle sound of the lapping river.

Glide down the Seine on the ultimate romantic river cruise, explore the festive Christmas markets along the Danube or Rhine, or take in some culture and sightseeing in epic proportions on an exotic Mekong river voyage. Sail with Uniworld, AmaWaterways, Avalon Waterways, Emerald Cruises, Scenic, Riviera Travel, APT Travelmarvel, and APT River Cruises for a range of spectacular river voyages.

YACHT-STYLE CRUISES

Looking for something a little different? A more intimate, smaller ship with an exclusive feel to it? This is where yacht-style cruises enter a whole new realm of ultra-luxury ocean travel.

Conveying around a hundred guests or less, each iconic vessel in this collection revels in the accolade of having the highest crew-to-passenger ratios in cruising. From bow to stern there's a warm cocoon of space and style; while the zeitgeist is perfectly honed to enhance la dolce vita.

Best of all you don't have to be an oligarch to buy into the privilege of yacht-style cruising!

Whether you picture yourself basking in the sun at the bow of the stunning Emerald Azzurra, somewhere off the Amalfi Coast, or island hopping around the South Pacific on a luxurious-yet-traditional masted sailing vessel with Ponant, a yacht-style cruise is sure to provide unforgettable memories and unrivalled intimate small-ship cruising.

EXPEDITION CRUISES

An expedition cruise is one which will take you closer to the heart of the most remote parts of the world, in far-flung corners such as Antarctica – the cruise world's final frontier. It is a path of enlightenment that takes an average holiday-maker from tourist, to intrepid adventurer, offering a huge range of immersive experiences.

Expedition cruises will take you to places that are not easily accessible by more traditional land-based trips and will show you parts of the world which you would not normally see. From the north and south poles, rich in wildlife and vast polar landscapes, to the remote destinations of Australia's Kimberley coastline and the fascinating Galápagos islands, there is so much to see on an expedition cruise.

You see the real and natural world in all its glory on any expedition cruise. You walk paths that have as yet been untrodden. You find elements of the environment that you have only ever seen on nature programmes or read about in books.

Check out our fantastic selection of expedition cruises from AE Expeditions, Hurtigruten Expeditions, Ponant, Scenic, Silversea Expeditions, Seabourn Expeditions, and Celebrity Expeditions.

February 2024

Explora Journeys promises to raise the bar when it comes to ultra-luxury cruising. With an investment of over $4 billion in their six new ships and a vastly experienced management team, I am confident that this new cruise line will help set new standards in the industry.

Now for the exciting part. On the 1st March 2024 I will step foot on EXPLORA I in Barbados and I am inviting you to come with me.

Barbados is not just my favourite cruising destination, but my favourite overall holiday destination. I've been several times and it's got something different to give with every visit. I'm so excited to take VIP guests with me on board a brand-new luxury cruise line!

Uniworld S.S. Maria Theresa
FOUNDERS CRUISE
June 2024

Following the success of our first ever Founders Cruise with Uniworld in July 2023, we couldn't resist partnering with Uniworld yet again on a fantastic luxury river cruise along the Danube. Setting sail in June 2024.

I'd recommend taking the optional two-night pre-cruise programme, taking in magical Prague and everything it has to offer. Fly to this historic city and stay for two nights in one its most luxurious hotels. We will explore the beautiful Old Town and Castle District with a personal tour guide supplied by Uniworld. I personally love this city, it's got a real buzz about it.

After, we will be transferred to Passau where we will embark the luxury river vessel, S.S. Maria Theresa. I have been lucky enough to sail aboard a number of Uniworld ships, each is decorated to match the destination it serves, so I am really excited to see what Uniworld have in store for this trip right through the heart of Europe on the Danube.

Throughout our VIP cruise, we will enjoy once-in-a-lifetime experiences, including a private classical concert in Vienna, a culinary tour of Bavaria, and more. Once again I'll be on board with some of my closest friends and family as your host. It promises to be a fantastic experience!

If this sounds like your ideal holiday, I'd love to see you there.

Visit Mozart's birthplace, nestled in its glorious alpine setting, and delve into the city's deep musical heritage on a walking tour of locations featured in the iconic film, 'The Sound of Music'.

Wed 26 Durnstein, Austria

Enjoy a special tasting of organic wines at Nikolaihof, perhaps the oldest winery in Austria. The location itself is fascinating: Encounter remnants of an ancient Roman fort and taste wines in a deconsecrated 15th-century chapel.

Thu 27 Vienna, Austria

Dubbed the 'City of Waltzes', Vienna is sure to enchant every visitor with its art, music, and charm. Enjoy an exclusive evening with Uniworld at a private Mozart and Strauss concert, a truly unforgettable, one-of-a-kind experience.

Oceania Vista
FOUNDERS CRUISE
January 2025

Now this is a Founders Cruise I am especially excited for, as I will be celebrating a big birthday whilst on board. January 2025 may still be a while off, but we will be boarding the brand-new showstopper, Oceania Vista, for an extraordinary 17-night sailing from Los Angeles to Miami.

This epic itinerary will include a few days in sunny Mexico before venturing to Guatemala, Nicaragua, and ultimately transiting through the Panama Canal. How amazing does that sound?

Not only is the roster of destinations simply incredible – the ship itself will make the journey unforgettable. In fact, myself and a few of my colleagues were on board Oceania Vista recently to celebrate the start of her inaugural season. The feedback was brilliant; the sleek design of the ship, elegant staterooms, and of course Oceania's signature culinary offerings were to the usual incredibly high standard.

If this sounds like the sort of cruise you'd like to join, I'd love to welcome you on board as my VIP guest. Read on to find out more about the itinerary and get in touch with the team to hear more about Oceania Vista.

Presenting EXPLORA JOURNEYS

Explora Journeys are a brand-new cruise line setting sail in 2023.

There's a warmth and charm to these creators of journeys, and it's exactly these features that draw you towards them. If they were a person, they'd be cultured and well-travelled - something like yourself.

Leaving little more than a ripple on the places they visit, Explora Journeys' prospective fleet of six ships has the grace and elegance of a gliding swan. Meanwhile, their itineraries have got the experience, indulgence, and felicity of a particularly sweet dream.

Explora Journeys are breaking conventions and transforming our very perceptions of ocean-going holidays. Most importantly, they're doing so with pizzazz and flair, inspiring guests with cosmopolitan and relaxed European luxury.

We stand in awe of this luxury brand and we can't wait to see their fleet featuring some of the finest ships, accommodation, food, drink, retail, and wellness facilities ever to sail our seas.

This is luxury, refined yet simple. Physical, intellectual, and spiritual luxury.

Astern pool and bar, EXPLORA I

Explora Journeys is revolutionising the luxury cruise market with EXPLORA I, the first of six all-inclusive ships.

The company's full-on vision is to transform ocean travel through highly innovative, superyacht-style luxury ships and immersive itineraries. This is the first venture into the lucrative ultra-luxury segment of the cruise market by family-owned MSC Group, the largest privately-owned cruise company and fourth-largest in the world.

Enjoying the benefit of starting with a blank canvas, the creators of Explora Journeys have established three pillars for their vision. These are: to enable guests to reconnect with themselves in a private space; to facilitate them meeting like-minded others; and to offer an authentic connection with exploits ashore. These are instilled into the tagline: 'Ocean State of Mind.' There's no doubt this is the most highly anticipated cruise venture for many years and word on the street is that it will be the hot-ticket over the next decade. Having the edge over the competition in the accommodation stakes, there's an odds-on chance Explora Journeys will soon be wooing the cognoscenti of cruising.

If the company's manifesto lives up to its hype and their ships turn out to be lodestars of the highest calibre, then cruising will have a shipshape new aristocrat.

We cruise the world to see it, feel it, and taste it. We want to immerse ourselves in it, diving head first and swimming deep into everything it has to offer. PRESENTING Oceania Vista Oceania Vista is a showstopper. The first new ship to join the company's fleet in a decade is the flagship of the line's innovative Allura class. Slightly edgier but every bit as sophisticated, the 1,200-guest ship retains the cosy vibe of the other six ships in this trailblazing company's fleet. There are nods to creativity in all the public rooms and accommodations, which are bathed in an urbane palette of glamour.

Embarking on Vista is like stepping into a work of art. In the Atrium, a sculptural staircase envelops a two-deck-high crystal chandelier, which resembles a vortex of water filled with schooling fish, subtly lit with changing hues coalescing from pinkish gold to icy white. Nine decks higher, a grand hallway leads to Horizons with its floor-to-ceiling windows and backlit onyx bar. The lounge is decked out in muted hues of blue and grey with gold accents and is perfect for afternoon tea, cocktails, or late-night dancing to the resident band.

Further aft on Deck 14 is Baristas, with its dark granite bar and leather stools. There's also one of the most refined libraries at sea.

Accommodations aboard Vista are designed with the understated elegance of a fine home and, like the rest of the ship, whisper true luxury. All come with French or private balconies and are the most spacious standard staterooms at sea. Each has Prestige Tranquillity Beds, a large rain-shower, a minibar, a smart TV, and 24-hour room service. Concierge-level Veranda Staterooms offer an enhanced range of benefits, such as room service from the Grand Dining Room and access to a private concierge lounge. A novel addition are concierge-level staterooms created especially for solo travellers.

Penthouse Suites feature the added luxuries of a walk-in wardrobe, an oversized bathroom, and a large private veranda. Guests also have unlimited use of the Aquamar Spa Terrace, along with butler service. Radiating an ambiance of residential chic, Oceania Suites are situated atop the ship and offer unparalleled views. Vista Suites are designed to be the ultimate seaside villas. Swathed in subtle tones accented by luminescent marble, granite, and rich weathered oak, each is a true retreat. Spanning the full beam of the ship, the three sumptuous Owner's Suites boast floor-to-ceiling windows and are styled exclusively in Ralph Lauren Home.

The Aquamar Spa offers a complete array of holistic programmes and treatments. The lavish Spa Terrace is an open-air deck with plush loungers, plunge pools, and whirlpools. The resort-style pool on Deck 12 has paddling areas plus six 'lilypad' cushioned daybeds at the water's edge with overhanging sunshades.

Oceania Cruises is renowned for its epicurean excellence; to maintain this accolade, the company has the highest percentage of culinary personnel devoted to dining. To ensure the impeccable quality of each dish, there's one chef for every ten guests; in fact, half of the onboard crew is dedicated to the cooking or serving of food.

Two new restaurants are already receiving critical acclaim. Ember has a barrel-vaulted brick ceiling, stone walls, and an open kitchen that prepares American-accented specialties. The other novel eating option is the light-blue and white, semi-outdoor Aquamar Kitchen, which serves healthy selections.

The two-deck-high, open-seating Grand Dining Room pays homage to the Belle Époque with its palette of ivory, gold, and silver, coupled with white leather chairs. A series of archways simulate imposing glass conservatories that subtly create intimate groupings of tables, which are lit by three vast hydrangea-inspired crystal chandeliers. This room, more than any other, reflects the art of fine living.

The ever-popular Red Ginger is the go-to restaurant for Pan-Asian cuisine. Embellishing its French-Colonial style motifs with pagoda-inspired lamps, custom wall installations, and chinoiserie pottery, the room is bourgeois and bohemian. Simply timeless, the Polo Grill spans the almanac of decadent design. With its curtains in hues of crimson, claret, gold, and shades of caramel, this classic American steakhouse is as sophisticated as it is snug. Frescoes on the ceiling of Toscana evoke tranquil scenes of the city of Siena. The sleek, cool style of this restaurant is the antithesis of florid opulence. The appetising Tuscan cuisine is presented by the company's dedicated team of Italian staff.

People often ask what makes Oceania Cruises distinctive. It's a sensibility. It's intangible, and it's very personal. This is affirmed aboard Vista, which has an impressive crew-to-guest ratio of 2:3. However, these remarkable statistics only tell part of the story. A harmony of contemporary flair and artistic finesse has ensured Oceania Cruises' latest vessel is a triumph in sassy design. This ship shimmers with allure and offers more than a soupçon of La Dolce Vista.

"My favourite course at Ember was the lobster mac 'n' cheese, presented beautifully in a wonderful setting. The venue is stunning with plenty of tables for two or to share and a very sophisticated, yet homely feel."

The grand dining room

Culinary centre

"The ambience in the Grand Dining Room is both cosy and luxurious. It's a real step up from the Grand Dining Rooms of Oceania past; the décor strikes the right balance between chic and casual, with stylish accents and a dash of personality that made us feel at home. The tables are perfectly set, and the comfy seating invites you to settle in and stay a while and enjoy a glass of wine or two. Whether you're dining with friends, family, or fellow cruisers, the Grand Dining Room on board Vista is a wonderful place for it – and that's before you even get to the food!"

Veranda stateroom

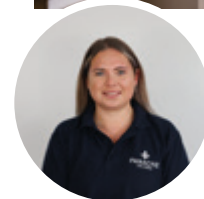

"The new and improved Aquamar Spa + Vitality Centre provides a luxurious sanctuary, with a vast array of different treatment areas, a spacious salon, a state-of-the-art gym, wellness centre and my firm favourite, the private spa terrace. The panoramic sea views are phenomenal. There is an endless choice of sunbeds, and private areas to go and relax in, along with a couple of jacuzzi pools. The highlight for me has to be the huge outdoor spa pool, which is one of the biggest I have seen. The terrace is such a lovely space to go, relax and unwind when you fancy getting away from the busier areas."

"Our large veranda was a huge highlight. It was lovely to take in the sea views and enjoy a glass of Champagne there before we headed off to dinner each evening. I would sit out and catch the morning rays before breakfast. Watching the sunrise in Rome was particularly breathtaking."

Get your sunglasses ready, because Cartagena is a riot of colour, charisma and Caribbean charm. Stroll through the jumble of cobbled streets and appreciate this UNESCO World Heritage Site or why not enjoy a signature S.A.L.T. Programme? Visit Bazarro Market with a local expert and then move onto Celele restaurant, unassuming but one of the finest eateries in Colombia.

Fri 12 Kingston, Jamaica

Sun 14 Cozumel, Mexico

Dive into the colourful, exotic world of sunny Cozumel. Mayan mythology says this island was a sanctuary for the Goddess of fertility and love. It's easy to see why. The town is full of buzz, vibe and eccentricity, but is dwarfed by a huge mangrove forest on the rest of the island. Filled with private beaches, snorkelling opportunities and fresh seafood joints, you'll spend your day in a sepia-toned haze.

Talking to Katy Brennan of Panache cruises was a breath of fresh air. Katy enquired as to our exact needs, listening very carefully before offering our ideal cruise. People buy from people and I would 100% recommend giving Panache cruises a call if you're thinking of a cruising holiday. Five stars all the way!
