A message from JAMES

Dear Fellow Cruiser,

It's almost unimaginable, but there was a time when Spain and Italy were otherworldly lands with strange folk who ate dinner past midnight and slept during lunchtime. They were places British people wouldn't dream of visiting in their lifetimes. Nowadays, with budget flights and thousands of accommodations, the world feels closer, smaller and a little less mysterious.

And yet, the world hasn't run out of magic. We're talking about fantastical animals, indigenous populations without the internet and coral reefs with more life than the world's densest cities. There are still places that have to be seen to be truly believed.

So here we have a collection of destinations that lie on the edge of believability. We're ready to show you the idiosyncrasies of the famed Galapagos Islands, the desolate shores of the Antarctic, utterly paradisiacal Pacific islands and so much more. The furthest corners of the planet have never felt so close.

Why would you trust us with the trip of your lifetime?

It's a good question, and one that you're always welcome to ask.
The answer is simple.

Panache Cruises is built upon a simple foundation: Nothing is too much trouble.

In fact, "no" isn't even in our vocabulary.

We bring experience, knowledge, good manners and common sense to provide world-class customer service alongside an educated booking experience, helping find the perfect cruise for customers.

We don't just know what we're doing, we love it too.

But don't just take my word. Here's what one of our lovely customers had to say about booking with us:

"(It's the) First time we have used an agent when booking a cruise.
We usually go direct. Great experience and Nicole was so helpful and efficient. She got us a better deal than going direct. No hesitation in recommending and are now looking at another booking. It was so easy to customise our trip. Thank you."

Caribbean | Bridgetown to Cartagena

Silversea | Silver Shadow | 12 nights | 7 December 2025

Day 1 Bridgetown, Barbados
Leave your stresses on the plane. Take a rum punch, put up your feet and attune your ears to the gentle shhhh of the waves. You'll soon get used to that.

Day 2-4 Bridgetown, Barbados
There's no better introduction to cruise life than a night in the home of laid-back beach vibes. Sip cocktails, head to a fish fry and doze off on the beach. Just don't miss your ship's departure.

Day 5 Soufrière, St. Lucia
Waterfalls, rainforests, the Pitons. This is the Caribbean that you've always dreamed about. Enjoy heart-thumping watersports, take a guided tour to the Sulphur Springs or hike the Pitons if you want to work off all that complimentary champagne.

Day 6 Bequia, Saint Vincent and the Grenadines
Unhurried. That's the only way you can describe Bequia, one of the most populous of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines' 32 islands. A stunning natural harbour, timeless rum shacks and gentle hikes with rewarding views await your arrival.

Day 8 Kralendijk, Bonaire
With a smaller population than you'd find in most English villages, Kralendijk serves European colonial charm, a quaint boulevard and world-class snorkelling.

Day 10 Willemstad, Curaçao
Famed for its UNESCO-listed city centre, Willemstad provides the ideal backdrop to slow down a little. Peruse the onboard activities and tuck into some local cuisine. If you've energy to burn, head over to the Swinging Old Lady or the oldest synagogue in the Americas.

Day 11 Oranjestad, Aruba
Similar in style to the previous days, Oranjestad has a slightly different vibe, serving up some of the Caribbean's best beaches, from where you can actually spot the shores of Venezuela on a clear day.

SILVERSEA®

Day 12 Santa Marta, Colombia
Welcome to South America, proper. Please take an obligatory empanada and a shot of Aguardiente. There's nature, there's colonial history and there's a beautifully welcoming local population. You'll be begging the Captain for one more night here.

Day 13 Cartagena, Colombia
History lovers, assemble! The city itself is like a living museum and was declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1984. For the rest of you, take in the Fuchsia bougainvillaea, drink one-too-many in a local bar and struggle to remember ever feeling quite this good.

Day 1 Fly UK to Buenos Aires

Day 2 Buenos Aires, Argentina
Kick off your Antarctic adventure in "Paris of South America", so nicknamed for its European cultural heritage. Sip on mate and tuck into a steak before dancing the tango ahead of the greatest voyage of your life.

Day 3 Fly to Ushuaia, Argentina
Welcome to the world's southernmost city. This is the jumping-off point for all things Antarctic, so stock up on last minute supplies, soak in the surreal atmosphere and try and catch some sleep before the magic begins.

Day 4-5 Drake Passage
It takes around two days to cross from Cape Horn to the South Shetland Islands of Antarctica. Get familiar with the ship and your fellow guests as you cross the famous Drake Passage. Visit the onboard Science Centre and listen to expert lectures given by your expedition team.

HX ships are designed for polar exploration, so you can expect stabilised hulls for a smoother journey and panoramic lounges perfect for wildlife spotting. Take part in photography workshops, attend daily recaps or relax in the hot tub as albatrosses soar overhead. This is also the time to pick up your expedition gear and prepare for your first Antarctic landing.

Day 6-10 Explore Antarctica
The frozen desolation of the Antarctic continent is truly something to behold. Kayak past looming glaciers and cathedral-sized icebergs amid the total silence of this untamed frontier. Penguins, whales and seals greet you warmly as you get used to the raw majesty of Antarctica.

Join the expedition team on shore landings to hike across pristine snowfields and visit historic huts from the heroic age of exploration. Try a polar plunge or join citizen science projects monitoring wildlife and climate. Enjoy expert-led

LUXURY FOUR-NIGHT HOTEL STAY IN TOKYO

FLIGHTS AND OVERSEAS TRANSFERS

LUXURY TWO-NIGHT HOTEL STAY IN HONG KONG

Asia | Tokyo to Hong Kong

Seabourn | Seabourn Encore | 15 nights | 5 January 2026

Day 1 Arrive in Tokyo
Fly overnight from London Heathrow to Tokyo International.

Day 2-6 Pre-cruise stay in Tokyo
Take a private transfer to your hotel for a four-night pre-cruise stay. Tokyo is a hypnotic clash of the ultra-modern and the deeply traditional. Yes, it's enormous. Yes, you will get lost. But that's half the fun. Here's what a day in Tokyo could look like for you.

Start your morning at Senso-ji, Tokyo's oldest temple, where incense mingles with the scent of sweet taiyaki. From there, hop on the Ginza Line and lose yourself in the Shibuya scramble. Want a taste of the city's weirder side? Shimokitazawa offers a kind of indie energy Lonely Planet has been trying to replicate for decades.

For lunch, slurp hand-pulled udon on alleyway stools or join the locals queuing for omurice at Kichi Kichi. In the evening, head to a hidden izakaya in Golden Gai or take in the skyline from one of Roppongi's rooftop bars.

Day 8 Osaka, Japan
While docked in Osaka, start with a visit to Osaka Castle, one of Japan's most iconic landmarks. The museum inside offers a glimpse into samurai-era history, but the view from the top is why most people come here.

From there, make your way to Osaka's pulsing, technicolour heart: Dotonbori. Neon lights, giant animated signs and a soundtrack of sizzling street food stalls. Try takoyaki (octopus balls) fresh off the grill or dig into a plate of okonomiyaki.

If that sounds like a sensory overload, visit Shitenno-ji, Japan's oldest officially administered Buddhist temple, founded in the 6th century. The peaceful grounds are a world away from the bright lights of the city.

Day 9 Kochi, Japan
Ready for a slice of rural Japan? Kochi is home to a hilltop castle and some of the most beautiful feudal architecture in the nation. Wander the historic streets of nearby Harimaya-bashi or sample freshly seared katsuo no tataki (bonito) at Hirome Market while rubbing elbows with the locals. Niyodo River and Nakatsu Gorge reveal Japan at its most tranquil and the Shimanto River provides the perfect stage for paddleboarding or kayaking.

Day 12 Keelung (Taipei), Taiwan
Just an hour outside of Taipei, we'd recommend getting a transfer to the Taiwanese capital. Here, you can hike Elephant Mountain and get a view of the whole city, including the iconic Taipei 101.

Day 14 Hong Kong, China
Arrive in Hong Kong for your two-night post-cruise stay. You're tired, you've seen one too many temples and you're not sure what you want to do.

Ready to take notes? Eat authentically at a cooked food centre, take the tram up to Victoria Peak and watch the sun set at Chung Hom Kok beach.

PANACHE CRUISES

James Cole on a hosted cruise in Venice with Uniworld

Let me level with you. To the uninitiated, the whole concept of hosted cruises sounds a little strange, right? You're essentially sharing your holiday with people you've never met, to then spend your evenings with a cruise-obsessed chatterbox.

But don't knock it 'til you've tried it.

Visit With Us, Rich and Helen

There are a few reasons that hosted cruises have boomed in popularity in recent years. For starters, the hosts are fantastic. Whether you're dining with sweethearts of the cruising industry or our very own founder and CEO, James Cole, you're swapping stories and making friends with incredible people. Accomplished men and women with a raw, unfiltered passion for travel and embracing the world around us.

Tony and Barbara Hallwood on an AmaWaterways hosted cruise

In addition to this, hosted cruises provide a community of like-minded individuals for you to share your holiday with. Cruising is already perfectly poised for welcoming individual travellers, but hosted cruises provide a focal point, expert guidance and a ready made social circle for you to dive into. What's more? You'll be invited to private cocktail evenings, hosted dinners and exclusive shore tours.

Your host can help with everything from dinner reservations and onboard activities to questions about excursions or customs processes. It's about enhancing the experience with expert guidance, insider tips and a reassuring presence onboard.

Dubrovnik

Visit With Us

Helen and Rich Chalu are the team behind popular YouTube channel Visit With Us and they will be hosting a cruise down the breathtaking Adriatic on Azamara Cruises, where you'll stop at hidden gem ports of call like Zadar, Sibenik and Kotor.

Corfu

Tony and Barbara Hallwood

There are few people with as much travel industry experience as the Hallwoods. Tony and Barbara are made for hosting.

Every night is like a dream dinner party at sea, so combine this with the world-class amenities of Explora Journeys and an itinerary that stops in Paros, Corfu and Hvar, and you're in for a treat. Or, if you love wine as much as they do, join Tony and Barbara on their hosted Uniworld river cruise sailing from Bordeaux along the Garonne.

Galápagos

James Cole

There are destinations that even the most experienced travellers are yet to uncover. Take our CEO and Founder, James Cole, for example. He's heading to the Galápagos for the first time in 2026, aboard National Geographic-Lindblad Expeditions' Endeavour II. He wants to share this once-in-a-lifetime experience with as many Panache Cruises Found*ers* as possible.

Day 5 Corfu, Greece
Are you tired of perfection yet? Sip on Ouzo in the Old Town, climb Mount Pantokrator and watch the sunset from your terrace.

The vines here have been producing grapes for over 100 years. Savour a wine tasting tour in historic châteaux and travel back through the ages of this iconic region, one sip at a time.

NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC | LINDBLAD EXPEDITIONS

National Geographic -Lindblad Expeditions | National Geographic Endeavour II | 9 nights
23 October 2026

Day 1 Quito or Guayaquil, Ecuador
Quito is a breathtaking city and that's not just because it's the second-highest capital on the planet. The entire city is a UNESCO World Heritage Site, so delight is guaranteed.

Day 2 Quito, Ecuador
You'll probably wake up exhausted, because who's getting a full night's sleep ahead of the most exciting voyage of their life? Take a private transfer to the airport. Upon arrival, embark the ship.

Day 3-8 Galápagos Islands
Giant tortoises, blue-footed boobies, Galápagos penguins. World-class snorkelling and guided hikes with established explorers. It's a place that needs no hyperbole. The Galápagos sells itself.

Day 9 Galápagos Islands / Disembark Ship / Guayaquil or Quito
You're probably feeling inspired, tired and a tad emotional. You've booked another expedition cruise on board (obviously). Disembark and fly to Quito.

Day 10 Guayaquil or Quito, Ecuador
Spend a day at leisure in Quito. Indulge in local treats, stroll along the boardwalk and reminisce about all the incredible things you've been lucky enough to experience.
